

Carousel Industries Announces Managed Services Offerings

Exeter, Rhode Island, October 19, 2009 - As we continue to add services to provide value to our clients, Carousel Industries is pleased to announce the launch of its new Managed Services Offerings. Effective October 5, 2009, Carousel will enter the market with two Managed Services Offers. Our Standard Managed Services Offer will provide monitoring, notification, dashboards and reporting features. Carousel's Enhanced Managed Services Offer will include the features of the Standard Service as well as remediation and additional support services. This signifies Carousel's entrance into the Managed Services space and will give us the ability to provide additional value to our clients. Carousel will continue to enhance and grow our skill sets, capabilities and offers in the Managed Services market over the coming months. "This is a major initiative for our company as we look to grow our business and capabilities," commented Dan Draper, Director, Managed Services.

In today's current environment, our clients are having to find ways to do more with less money and resources. Carousel's new Managed Services Offerings will enable our clients to turn to us to augment their staff and provide day-to-day operational support for their converged environments for a predictable, fixed monthly cost.

"This is a great time for Carousel to continue to demonstrate to our clients the capabilities and value we bring to the market. There is a tremendous opportunity in front of us, and these new offerings will continue to help Carousel position itself as an industry leader," stated Jeff Gardner, CEO.
